

JOB DESCRIPTION

Title: Painter

Date: March 10, 2024

Classification: Hourly

Reports to: Combustion & Controls Technical Manager

JOB SUMMARY:

Clean, prepare and paint boilers and parts. Mix all paint products and perform functions with little or no supervision.

FUNCTIONS TO BE PERFORMED:

-  Clean and inspect parts prior to painting
-  Do all required masking on areas not to be painted
-  Paint the boilers and all parts with the acceptable quality of finish
-  Follow all procedures for a quality lasting paint surface
-  Follow proper guidelines for storage and inventory of chemicals and paints
-  Be able to mix and spray all products used
-  Keep equipment clean and work area clean
-  Perform routine maintenance on paint booth and paint equipment
-  Perform other related duties as required

PHYSICAL AND MENTAL REQUIREMENTS:

-  Able to communicate verbally and in writing
-  Must be capable of following verbal and/or written instructions
-  Capable of lifting up to 70 pounds alone and 100 pounds with assistance
-  Able to work from ladders and scaffolding
-  Able to bend, stoop, twist and squat
-  Must be able to work in semi-awkward positions
-  Working knowledge of and proper use of all safety equipment
-  Must have knowledge of MSDS information as it pertains to chemicals and paints and know where they are located
-  Ability to retain information with regard to chemical and paint materials
-  No allergic reactions to paint, dust, or other related paint materials
-  Be able to determine the proper surface condition for acceptance of paint and prepare if required
-  Must have full knowledge of quality requirements to produce acceptable finish paint